

1. To inform about Emma Lake's achievements / celebrate her success / inspire others

2. The Grand Theatre, Greenhill

3. Homophone 1: aloud → spoken, out loud

Homophone 2: allowed → permitted

4. Shows it is a specific, important theatre / emphasizes it is well-known

5. Sentence: "Emma, who grew up in Greenhill, became famous for writing a play about friendship and kindness..."

Relative pronoun: who

Effect: Adds extra information about Emma without a new sentence; gives background

6.

a. Pair: play / play

b. Meanings:

play (verb) → to act, perform, engage in activity

play (noun) → a performance or theatrical work

c. Greek roots:

Homo → same

Graph → writing

7. inspiring / young / international / proud

8.

a. ... is called an ellipsis (...)

b. Purpose: shows pause, continuation, or unfinished thought

9. Nervous but determined / proud / brave

Evidence: "There were moments when I thought I wasn't good enough, but I kept writing, kept trying..."

10. No

Support: "There were moments when I thought I wasn't good enough"

11. To support young artists / encourage students like Emma / provide a space for performances

12. "Emma is proof that with courage and creativity, anyone can make a difference."

"Success is not only about talent but also about persistence and passion."

13. "The audience clapped loudly, showing great respect and admiration."

"The event ended with a standing ovation..."

14. Third person / reporter / event organizers

15. Is this text fiction or nonfiction? Explain why

Nonfiction

True account of Emma Lake's life; contains real events, quotes, and factual info

Text B – Biography

1. Birth year: 2008

Childhood interests: reading, pretending to be characters

Mother's occupation

Name of first play: The Secret Gardeners

2. Emma Lake

3. Positive

Evidence: "cheerful, determined, and full of creative energy"

5. Failure can lead to strength / never give up / keep trying

6. Young people learning to believe in themselves / encouraging self-confidence

7. Third person / narrator / author

8. Hard work, persistence, creativity lead to success

Dreams can come true if you never give up

Compare Text A and B

Text A language: formal, report style, factual, includes quotes and opinions from others

Text B language: biography style, narrative, descriptive, includes personal life details and emotions