

Worksheet number (3) Jump for Joy / Unit One

Name :

Subject:

English Language

Class:

10th Grade (A+B)

Date:

\ Sep \ 2025

Learning objective : Students should be able to be familiar with derived words.

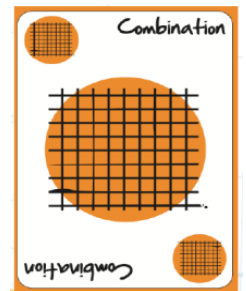

Derivation= Adding a prefix or a suffix to the existing Question 1: Put the correct form of the word in brackets into the blank...

Group One...

ridicule (v) , ridicule (n), ridiculous (adj), ridiculously (adv).

1. You mustn't _____ unfortunate people.
2. You look _____ in those tight jeans.
3. The written test was _____ easy.
4. Property in the area is fetching _____ high prices.
5. He is exposed to the _____ of the public.

Group Two...

remark (v) , remark (n), remarkable (adj).

1. Did you _____ the similarity between them?
2. She has made _____ progress.
3. The senator denied making the _____.
4. The Eiffel Tower is a _____ feat of engineering.

Group Three...

stick (v) , sticky (adj).

1. Could you _____ to the point, please?
2. I always seem to get into _____ situations on holiday.

Group Four...

conclude (v) , conclusion (n), conclusive (adj), conclusively (adv).

1. The debate didn't come to a _____ until yesterday.
2. It's difficult to guess what they will _____ from the evidence.
3. The reasoning behind her _____ is impossible to fault.
4. His guilt has never been _____ proven.
5. The investigation failed to provide any _____ evidence.

Group Five...

investigate (v) , investigation, investigator, investigating (n).

1. The team consisted of six _____ and two secretaries.
2. The _____ continued for nearly three years.
3. Police have been called to _____ the complaints.
4. Officers _____ her death are keeping their option open.

Group Six...

research (v), research, researcher (n).

1. The _____ are repeating the experiment on rats.
2. She sent us her review of the _____.
3. Before going out to eat, she _____ area restaurants.

Group Seven...

explain (v) , explanation (n), explanatory (adj).

1. There are _____ notes at the back of the book.
2. Would you _____ yourself a little?
3. I want to hear your _____ for being late.

Group Eight...

science (n), scientific (adj), scientist (n), scientifically (adv).

1. _____ have made many important discoveries.
2. This book is descriptive of a _____ exploration.
3. He explained _____ the most important questions of political economy.
4. This view has been confirmed _____.
5. The study of _____ has enriched all our lives.

Group Nine...

simple (adj), simply (adv), simplicity (n), simplify (v).

1. They have _____ misunderstood what rock and roll is.
2. He tried to _____ the story for the younger audience.
3. Tara wrote with a beautiful _____ of style.
4. Students are required to undertake _____ experiments.
5. I like the _____ of her dress.
6. Private collections _____ research in some topics.

English Department...

Teachers:

Rania Yousef AL- Masry & Ghadeer Abu Jeries