Sentence Writing Guidelines Worksheet

1. What Is a Sentence?

A sentence is a complete idea.

It must have:

- A subject (who or what the sentence is about)
- A verb (what the subject does or is)
- A complete thought

Examples:

- She runs fast.
- The teacher is kind.
- My friends play football every weekend.

☐ Not complete sentences:

- Running fast.
- Because I like pizza.
- The big dog.

2. The Basic Sentence Formula

Subject + Verb + (Object/Extra Information)

Example	Formula
I eat apples.	Subject + Verb + Object
He plays football in the park.	Subject + Verb + Object + Place
The sun rises in the east.	Subject + Verb + Place

Practice 1: Complete the sentences.

1. _____ eats breakfast at 7:00.
2. My friends _____ in the afternoon.
3. The teacher _____ English.

3. Adding Details

Good sentences have details — about where, when, how, or why.

Example:

- Simple: She studies.
- Better: She studies in her room every evening.

Practice 2: Add details.

1. He plays. → _____
2. They walk. → _____
3. I read. → _____

4. Using Connectors to Join Ideas

Use and, but, because, so, although to connect sentences.

Examples:

- I like coffee and tea.
- She was tired, but she finished her homework.
- I didn't go out because it was raining.

Practice 3: Join the ideas.

1. I was hungry. I made a sandwich.
→ _____
2. He is smart. He doesn't study much.
→ _____
3. I like summer. I can swim every day.
→ _____

5. Check Before You Write

Use this quick checklist:

- ☐ Does my sentence have a subject?
- ☐ Does it have a verb?
- ☐ Does it make sense by itself?
- ☐ Did I use capital letters and punctuation?

Practice 4: Correct these sentences.

1. like play football.
2. she happy today
3. because it was raining.
4. my brother is tall and kind

6. Writing Challenge

Write 3 complete sentences about your daily routine.

Try to include details and connectors.

Example:

- I wake up at 6:30 and eat breakfast with my family.
- After school, I do my homework because I want to get good grades.
- I watch TV before I sleep.

Your turn:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

7. Final Tip

Writing good sentences is like building a house — you need a strong foundation. Start small, check your work, and add more details step by step.
