

Worksheet

Name :

Subject:

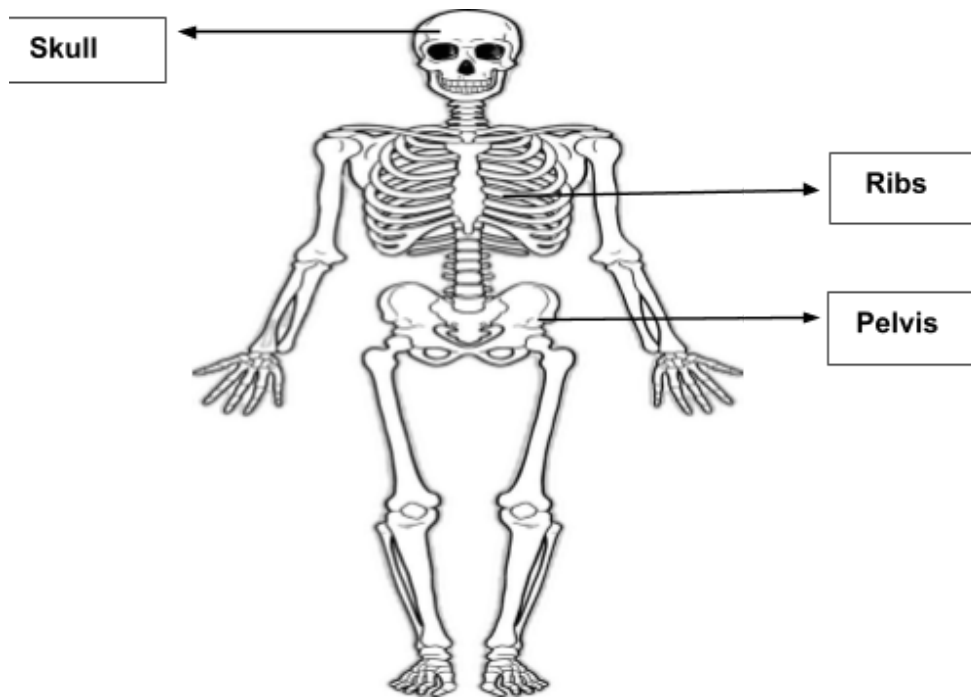

Science

Class:

Fourth grade

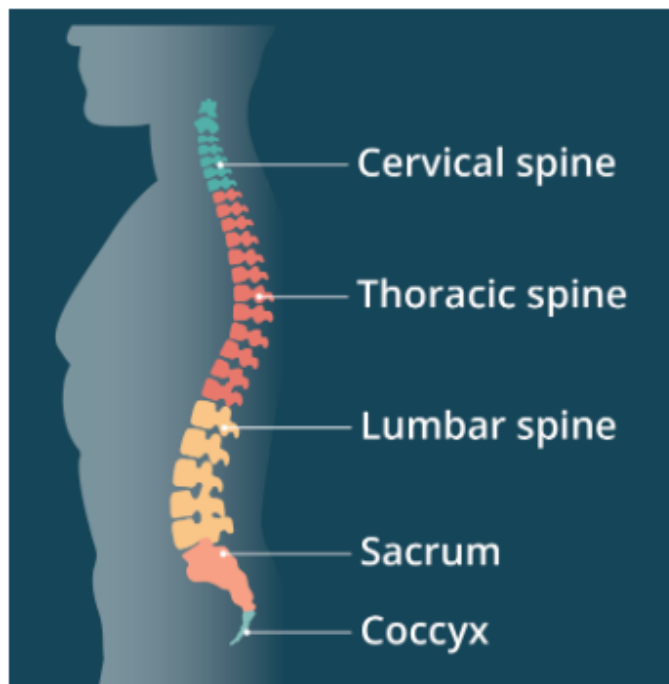

Date:

- ❖ What is the main function of bone marrow?
  - Make blood cells for the entire body.
- ❖ How many bones does an infant's body have?
  - 300 bones
- ❖ How many bones are in the adult's human body?
  - 206 bones
- ❖ What does some of an infant's bone structure consist of?
  - Cartilage
- ❖ At what age is the bone formation process complete?
  - By age 25
- ❖ What is the function of the spine?
  - Holds the body upright
  - Allows body to twist
- ❖ How has the spinal cord been protected?
  - By the spine
- ❖ How many bones make up the spine?
  - 33 bones
- ❖ What are vertebrae?
  - Are the bones that form the spine

❖ What are the names of the bones in the human spine?

- Cervical vertebrae : consist of 7 bones.
- Thoracic vertebrae: consist of 12 bones.
- Lumbar vertebrae: consist of 5 bones.
- Sacrum vertebrae: consist of 5 bones.
- Coccyx vertebrae: consist of 1 bone.

❖ What are the important parts that the ribs contain?

- The heart
- Lungs
- Liver

❖ How many pairs of ribs does a typical human have?

- 12 pairs

Science Department
Teacher: Sara Samawi