Date:

*They're called demonstrative pronouns because they "demonstrate" or "point out" something.

We use them to:

- Show how many things we're talking about (1 or many)
- Show where those things are (near or far)

Remember - Demonstratives:
	Near (here)	Far (there)
singular	this	that
plural	these	those

This is a book. →

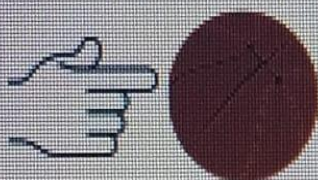

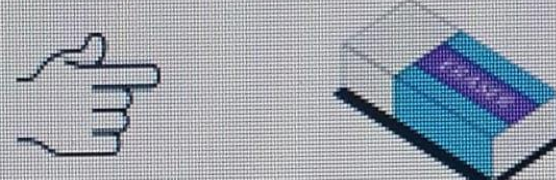

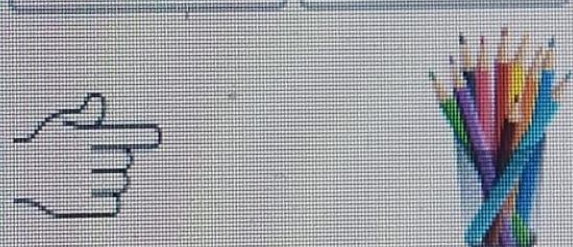

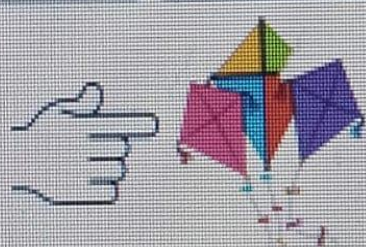

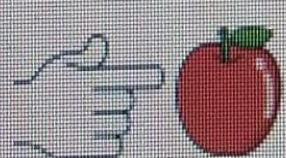

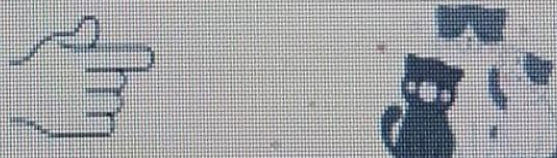

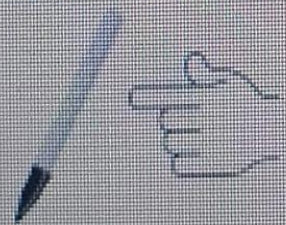

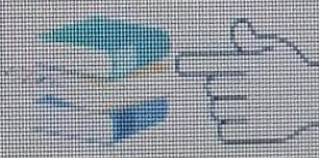

That is a book. →
