

Answer Key

Blue = Capital Letters | Red = Punctuation Marks | Green = Corrected Verbs

Punctuation & Capitalisation Corrected Answers

Yesterday, our class went on a school trip to the History Museum. We were excited from the moment we arrived. The guide welcomed us warmly and showed us the ancient rooms. We explored tall statues, shiny coins, and hand-painted masks. My friend Lina kept asking interesting questions during the tour. Everyone listened carefully and wrote notes. At the end, we visited the science room where we watched a volcano model erupt. It was the most exciting part of the day.

Today, our teacher announced that we will start a new project about space. Each group must create a poster and a short presentation. My team chose to research Saturn because of its beautiful rings. Mariam searched for facts on her tablet. Zaid planned the design, and I sketched the layout. We will meet again tomorrow to continue working. Our teacher told us that creativity and teamwork are very important. We hope our project will turn out amazing.

On Friday, my family visited my grandmother, who lives in a small peaceful village. The moment we entered the house, we smelled freshly baked bread. My sister ran to the garden where colorful flowers covered the ground. My brother chased butterflies near the trees. I helped set the table for lunch. Later, my grandmother shared stories from her childhood, and everyone listened with wide smiles. We spent the whole afternoon laughing, learning, and enjoying our time together.

Last week, our school held a Sports Day, and the playground was full of energy. Students participated in running races, jumping challenges, and team games. My classmates cheered loudly during every event. The teachers also joined some activities, which made the day even more fun. My team competed in the tug-of-war, and we pulled with all our strength. The final round was very close, but we won in the end. I went home feeling proud and excited.

This morning, I woke up to the sound of birds singing outside. The sky was painted with soft pink and orange colors. My mother prepared warm pancakes for breakfast while my father read the newspaper. My little brother spilled juice, and everyone laughed. I packed my school bag quickly because I was excited for our art lesson. I felt that it was going to be a wonderful day from the very beginning.

Capitalisation Corrected Answers

My name is Lina and I live in Amman. During the weekend, I visited my Aunt Rania who had prepared a delicious lunch for us. After we ate, she showed me a new book called The Lost Forest. Later, we walked in her garden where her dog Max followed us everywhere. Before leaving, we watched Frozen together. It was a lovely visit.

On Monday, our class travelled to Aqaba to visit the Marine Science Center. We saw bright fish swimming in clear blue water. My friend Nour took many photos. The teacher reminded us that we would write a report about the trip. When we returned to school, my father asked, "How was your trip?" and I told him everything.

Last night, my family watched Spiderman at home. It is one of my favourite movies. My brother said, "I want to be a hero when I grow up." After the movie, we talked about our favourite scenes. My father asked, "Did you like it?" and I told him that I loved it. We all enjoyed our evening together.

On Thursday, we met Mr. Ahmad who visited our class to talk about inventions. We learned about famous inventors including Thomas Edison. My friend Sara asked many thoughtful questions. After the presentation, we drew pictures of our own invention ideas. I felt proud of my work because the teacher said it was creative.

In the summer, we travel to Turkey every year. My sister Maya loves swimming at the beach. My mother always buys souvenirs for our relatives. My father takes photos of the sunset. One day, we visited Princes Islands and rode bicycles along the shore. We always enjoy our summer trips.

Past Tense Corrected Answers

Yesterday, I went to the market near our house. I bought apples, oranges, and bread. My mother told me to hurry, so I ran to the bakery next to the store. The baker gave me fresh bread and smiled at me. Outside, I met my cousin, and we walked home together. The weather was warm, and we ate some fruit on the way home. We had a fun morning.

Last night, we watched a new movie at home. My brother laughed loudly during the funny scenes. My sister cried when the sad part came. My father made popcorn, and we sat together on the carpet. My mother said the movie was excellent. We finished it at ten. Then we went to bed. I slept quickly. It was a nice night.

On Saturday, we drove to Zarqa to visit my aunt. She cooked a big meal for everyone. Outside, my cousins played football while my uncle took photos. We ran around the garden until sunset. Later, we drank orange juice and talked about school. My aunt told funny stories. We stayed until evening and returned home tired.

This morning, I woke up early and ate breakfast with my family. My father read the news while my mother prepared my lunchbox. I walked to school and met my friends at the gate. We talked about the weekend. Our teacher started the first lesson and we wrote notes in our books. The day was very calm and nice.

Last week, our class visited the museum. We saw dinosaur bones and old statues. My friend asked many questions. The guide explained everything clearly. We took pictures and learned new facts. After lunch, we walked around the garden, then we sat near the fountain. We returned to school in the afternoon.
