

Weather Personification

Personification means giving something, like the weather, human qualities or abilities.

The sun smiled down on the seedlings.

Hailstones tap danced on the pavement.

A rainbow leapt across the sky.

The breeze murmured through the trees.

The mist cradled the hillside.

Thunder shouted through the air.

The clouds ambled through the heavens.

Snow tickled my tongue.

Rain cried down on the world.

Lightning danced across the horizon.

The thunder was grumbling in the distance.

The snow whispered as it fell to the ground.

The wind howled in the night.

The snow swaddled the soil.

The sun played hide and seek with the clouds.

Sunshine kissed the tops of the buildings.

The cold pinched my cheeks.

Warm rain bathed the town.
