

Greek Orthodox Patriarchate School

Grade 11 Revision Vocabulary Unit Three + Four Vocabulary

Choose the correct answer

1. The hall was completely silent _____ the speaker's calm voice.
a) for instance b) for the sake of c) except for d) for the better
2. _____, all chemicals must be handled by trained staff only.
a) For the better b) For safety reasons c) For instance d) For the sake of
3. Journalists decided to publish the report because they believed it was _____, despite strong opposition from several officials.
a) in the wild b) in somebody's power c) in the public interest d) in control
4. Many young adults feel anxious when they realise they are no longer fully _____ of their future career paths.
a) in danger of b) in touch with c) in order to d) in control
5. The committee couldn't reach a final decision because several members were still _____ about whether the project was worth the risk.
a) on purpose b) on the shore c) on the fence d) on board
6. After the storm damaged the bridge, residents had to travel to the neighbouring town _____ until repairs were completed.
a) on your way b) on foot c) on the whole d) on the spot
7. Many teachers are deeply _____ the growing lack of motivation among students in long online courses.
a) cope with b) bothered by c) gaze at d) hope for
8. Poor communication between departments can easily _____ serious delays in completing large-scale projects.
a) live on b) react to c) lead to d) empathise with 9. The journalist refused to _____ the rumours until reliable evidence had been confirmed.
a) comment on b) insist on c) go on about d) experiment with

10. Despite limited resources, the team managed to _____ the unexpected pressure and meet the final deadline.

- a) negotiate for b) depend on c) cope with d) engage in

11. Instead of listening calmly, my brother _____ the argument by exaggerating a simple misunderstanding.

- a) burst into tears b) blew things out of proportion
c) made up with me d) gave me a compliment

12. When the tension escalated during the family dinner, I tried to _____ to prevent the disagreement from turning into a serious conflict.

- a) fall out with him b) have a go at him c) be the peacemaker d) lose my temper

13. I completely _____ my sister's frustration because she felt unfairly blamed for something she hadn't done.

- a) empathised with b) showed off to
c) messed about with d) talked behind her back

14. After days of silence following the clash, we finally decided to _____ and move past the argument.

- a) make fun of each other b) tell each other off
c) put up with each other d) make up with each other

15. Because of readers' shrinking _____, many news platforms rely on striking visuals rather than long analytical reports.

- a) exclusive b) attention span c) quirky d) balanced

16. The investigation was praised for being _____, as it revealed abuse of power without exaggeration or emotional manipulation.

- a) sensational b) heartbreaking
c) hard-hitting d) heartwarming

17. Ethical journalists always _____ before publishing claims that could damage reputations.

- a) generate revenue b) go viral c) verify sources d) hit the headlines

18. The leaked documents helped _____ long-hidden financial misconduct within the organisation.

- a) shed light on b) present both sides of the story
c) expose corruption d) remain off the record

19. The editor rejected the article because it relied on _____ rather than accurate reporting to attract readers.

- a) balanced b) newsworthy c) clickbait headlines d) exclusive

20. The reporter was given _____ access to the documents, meaning no other media outlet had seen them before.

- a) sensational b) exclusive c) quirky d) heartwarming

21. Responsible journalism requires writers to _____ instead of favouring one opinion over another.

- a) hit the headlines b) generate revenue
c) present both sides of the story d) go viral

22. The charity's short documentary was _____, leaving many viewers emotionally moved and eager to help.

- a) heartbreaking b) balanced
c) off the record d) newsworthy

23. The photographer waited patiently for the perfect moment to _____ that reflected both fear and hope.

- a) pose b) crop
c) capture an image d) wander

24. Despite the chaos around her, the witness remained _____ and answered the questions calmly.

- a) poignant b) composed c) cropped d) racing

25. Hearing footsteps behind him, the child turned to _____ through the darkness, trying to recognise the figure.

- a) bellow b) yell c) mutter d) peer

1c	3c	5c	7b	9a	11b	13a	15 b	17c	19c	21c	23c	25d
2b	4d	6b	8c	10c	12c	14 d	16c	18c	20b	22a	24b	